

A LEVEL CLASSICAL CIVILISATION

This exciting new course comprises the study of ancient Greek and Roman literature, culture and beliefs. You do not need to have any prior knowledge of Classics nor do you need to have done GCSE Classics. We think you will enjoy the variety of topics on offer.

Throughout the course we will be discussing the issues which arise in the various topics and making comparisons with our own culture and civilisation. You will also gain valuable skills in how to analyse and present arguments in essays, useful for whatever you go on to study at university.

Content Overview
The world of the hero 40% an in-depth study of two epic poems <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Homer's Odyssey• and Virgil's Aeneid
Culture and the arts 30% the study of visual and material culture <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Greek Theatre
Component 3: Belief and Ideas 30% a study of visual and literary source material <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Democracy and the Athenians

