

York and District Geographical Association

2020-2021 Programme

Wednesday 30th September 2020/Joint RGS lecture

Ian Packham, explorer and writer

'700 miles on foot across Bangladesh'

Thursday 12th November 2020/ Joint RGS lecture

Professor Colin McFarlane, University of Durham

'An urban world: life and politics on the margins of the city'

Tuesday 19th January 2021/Joint RGS lecture

Dr Caitlin Robinson, University of Liverpool

Fuelling poverty: Energy, society and inequality

Tuesday 2nd February 2021

Abi Hayward, journalist with Canadian Geographic

'The fish you don't know you eat'

Tuesday 16th March 2021 Sixth Form Conference

10.30-12.30

AQA Exams, an overview of assessment objectives and exam technique

1.30-4.00pm

University of Sheffield Geography department, three linked lectures, theme tbc.

Liz Brown

Global systems and global governance – University of Sheffield, TBC

Please note that this academic year the lectures will all be virtual events.

Evening lectures commence at 7.15pm and generally finish by 8.30pm and will be streamed live via Streamyard.com, link available on the GA website a week before. If you have received the programme by email you will automatically get the link to share with your students by email.

Contact Liz Brown on liz.brown@boothamschool.com if you have any queries. There are no charges for lectures for this academic year. We still hope the Sixth Form Conference can be in person but will review this in January 2021.